

2012 SWINE JUDGE

Mick Culp - Wilmington, Ohio

Total Years Judging Experience: 45+

The PCJLC ask that you please answer the following questions, to assist our youth exhibitors in getting to know their specie judge for the 2012 Pinal County Fair. If you would like to attach or include your Judge's BIO Sheet with this questionnaire, it would be greatly appreciated. Thank You!

1. Please list recent shows you have judged:

Clinton, Colorado – Open Show

Elkart District

8 Swine Carcass Shows, Same pig champion Live and on the Rail - ALL 8 Shows

2. What methods do you use in evaluating a market animal?

Balance, Correct Structure, Ideal Market Weight and can the pig be produced in numbers – Not a Freak.

3. What do you look for in a good showman?

Unassuming – I notice pig and not show person. Show-person dresses for the showing NOT for a Party.

4. Other Important Facts or Comments:

I want a Show-person to get NO, NONE, NOT ANY HELP from sidelines.

It is me, the pig and the show-person.

Older Show-person should know about Swine Industry.
